

Fisher & Phillips LLP

Can Help With Your Labor & Employment Needs
So That You Can Concentrate on Publishing a Great Newspaper

With roots in Atlanta and offices across the U.S., Fisher & Phillips LLP is one of the oldest and largest law firms in the country representing management in the areas of labor, employment, civil rights, employee benefits and immigration law. Our attorneys have worked with newspaper publishers throughout the South and the U.S. These experienced lawyers understand the workplace needs of busy newspaper executives.

Since our founding in 1943, we have developed and maintained a depth and breadth of expertise that is difficult, if not impossible, for most other firms to match.

We invite you to contact us to learn more about us and our approach toward representing newspaper publishers in labor and employment matters.
